Arcane animation style selfie: In a shadowy alleyway or before ancient ruins in neutral territory, Katarina, with a sly smirk, suddenly holds up a device (perhaps modified) to take a selfie with a stern and slightly caught-off-guard Garen beside her. Light spills from above or the side, creating strong chiaroscuro, the atmosphere tense and ambiguous.

Arcane animation style selfie: At a sunny Piltover marketplace or the entrance to an ancient ruin just "discovered" by Ezreal, Ezreal enthusiastically holds up his Hextech camera (or gauntlet device) for a selfie, beaming with an adventurer's pride. Lux stands beside him with a bright, genuine smile. The background shows bustling crowds or stone walls with mysterious runes, filled with the energy of exploration.

Arcane animation style selfie: On a windswept, slightly desolate hillside in Ionia, perhaps with ancient stone markers or a bamboo grove in the background. Riven holds up a simple device for a selfie, her expression unreadable, gaze directed complexly away from the lens. Yasuo stands slightly behind her, partially turned away from the camera, his gaze sharp with a mix of wariness and scrutiny, hand perhaps unconsciously near his sword hilt. The lighting could be dusk, with the low sun casting long shadows, creating a heavy atmosphere filled with unresolved entanglement.

Arcane animation style selfie: In a colorful corner of Bandle City (or deep within a magical forest elsewhere in Runeterra) filled with strange glowing flora, Lulu cheerfully holds up a whimsical device, seemingly adorned with flowers and twigs, for a selfie. Her eyes sparkle with mischief, and she wears a wide grin. Mini Gnar curiously huddles next to her, a mix of confusion and excitement on his furry face, perhaps reaching a tiny paw towards the lens or Lulu's fae companion, Pix. The background features dreamlike plants with a soft glow, with light filtering through leaves, creating a fantastical and lively atmosphere.
